

To Access Patient Medical Records in GP Hub System

1. Once you select a patient, please click on 'More shared data is available but will require patients permission to view'
2. Emis Web Data sharing – Permission to view screen will appear please select appropriately to access patient past medical notes.

3. Please make sure you are always on All Records (as shown on the screen below) to access patient full medical records including current and past medical records.

4. Please note to access patient medication history, please select Medication and then click on more shared data is available but will require patient's permission to view. And then click on All Records.

To Access Patient Medical Records in GP Hub System

5. Please note GP's are unable to print repeat prescriptions and are only able to prescribe acute medications. For repeat prescription patients are to be sent back to their registered GP surgery. However, the GP's can add and issue immediate necessary medications.